TITHING AND THE CHURCH - Gary North

Each individual church has their own policies and procedures for counting church offerings, but there should always be at least two people counting the offerings followed by their signatures on the form or sheet. The Church Laws and Regulations require at least two signatures of any two people counting the tithes and offerings per sheet or form.

Church Name:

Every church needs to have accurate record tracking of tithes and offerings, but it can be a real headache doing that manually. You have to make sure every contribution is recorded for the correct member toward the correct fund, track loose cash, produce weekly/monthly reports, and generate giving statements at the end of the year.
