The kobold (occasionally cobold) is a sprite stemming from Germanic mythology and surviving into modern times in German folklore.. Although usually invisible, a kobold can materialize in the form of an animal, dolls, fire, a human being, and a candle. The most common depictions of kobolds show them as humanlike figures the size of small children.

The salamander is an amphibian of the order Urodela which, as with many real creatures, often has been ascribed fantastic and sometimes occult qualities by pre-modern authors (as in the allegorical descriptions of animals in medieval bestiaries) not possessed by the real organism. The legendary salamander is often depicted as a typical salamander in shape, with a lizard-like form, but is ...

For thousands of years, the sudden appearance of a ring of mushrooms was a sure sign of otherworldly presences. These rings would seemingly appear overnight, or travel from one location to another, with no clear rhyme or reason.

Do you dare enter a fairy ring? The mythical mushroom

Larry Koopa: Larry Koopa is the youngest Koopaling who is often seen at the forefront of the Koopalings' antics, and he wields the orange magic wand. His main color representation is sky blue, although his shell was originally colored green, his hair was white in early sprites, and he lacked the small star on the side of his face.
