he who saw everything pdf

"He who saw everything" is the opening line from the first of the twelve fragmented tablets which provide our source material for the Epic of Gilgamesh, an ancient Babylonian epic. With gods, ghosts, heroes, lovers, high adventure and rich cosmic symbolism, the epic presents the modern reader with many of their own cultural origins.

As our Creator, He custom-designed us for a unique purpose. David declared that the steps of a godly person are directed by the LORD.⁴ That means that He will guide us as we live our lives for Him. God even "understands how weak we are; He knows we are only dust."⁵ This assurance was evident in the experience of a pastor of a small church.
