In archaeology, geophysical survey is ground-based physical sensing techniques used for archaeological imaging or mapping. Remote sensing and marine surveys are also used in archaeology, but are generally considered separate disciplines. Other terms, such as "geophysical prospection" and "archaeological geophysics" are generally synonymous.

Sluice boxes are often used in the recovery of black sands, gold, and other minerals from placer deposits during placer mining operations. They may be small-scale, as used in prospecting, or much larger, as in commercial operations, where the material is first screened using a trommel or screening plant. Typical sluices have transverse riffles over a carpet, which trap the heavy minerals ...

The two are interlinked, but customers can be loyal to your brand without being advocates (although the reverse canâ€™t really be true). A brand loyalist is someone who is personally loyal to your brand, but doesnâ€™t engage in promoting you to others. Theyâ€™re important, not only because they generate revenue, but because they possess the potential to become advocates.
