Homeopathy Definition. Homeopathy, or homeopathic medicine, is a holistic system of treatment that originated in the late eighteenth century. The name homeopathy is derived from two Greek words that mean "like disease."

Homeopathy | Encyclopedia.com

Homeopathic practice has been criticized as unethical because it discourages the use of effective treatments, with the World Health Organization warning against using homeopathy to try to treat severe diseases such as HIV and malaria.

Homeopathy - Wikipedia

But the people in general hailed them as welcome friends in their domestic afflictions, where counsel is so often needed at times when medical aid can not be obtained. At this time scarcely one homoeopathic family is without one or more books on domestic practice, which is a sufficient evidence of their practical utility.
