Peace is the concept of harmonious well-being and freedom from hostile aggression. In a social sense, peace is commonly used to mean a lack of conflict (such as war) and freedom from fear of violence between individuals or heterogeneous (relatively foreign or distinct) groups.. Throughout history some of the most extraordinary and benevolent leaders have used peace talks to establish a certain ...

A peace treaty is an agreement between two or more hostile parties, usually countries or governments, which formally ends a state of war between the parties. It is different from an armistice, which is an agreement to stop hostilities, or a surrender, in which an army agrees to give up arms, or a ceasefire or truce in which the parties may agree to temporarily or permanently stop fighting.

When we talk about becoming a "peacebuilder," we don't mean becoming some kind of passive daydreamer. We are talking about empowering yourself to become an embodiment of the awakened presence of peace, a protector of the innocent, and a heart-based "warrior" of genuine love, truth and justice for one and all.. We all know world peace starts with inner peace.
